

As an ARRL member, I submit my full support for the 60-meter band. It is extremely complex at night to find a clear frequency on 40 meters due to the foreign broadcasts, moreover during the day with the immense quantity of worthless ``nets" in my opinion.

Respectfully Submitted,

Frank A. Todd, IV
Amateur Radio Licensee K3EKO